Sea Magic Sing-Along Fundraiser

Featuring Moana and Ariel
$25 Per Person, ages 2 and under are free
Saturday, March 15, 3 PM - 4:30 PM
Doors open at 2:30 PM | Performance at 3 PM

Join us for an after-hours ticketed experience to support Otis Library! The $25.00 per person includes a sing-along performance, a meet-and-greet photo opportunity, a keepsake craft, refreshments, and chances to win a prize.

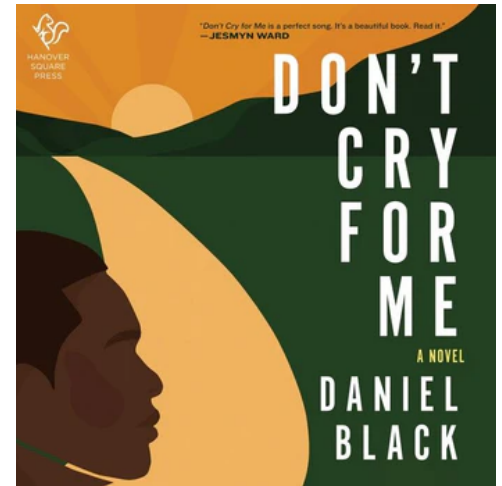

Thank you to our sponsors Attorney Bart Sayet and Ms. Lori Lindfors.

Don't Cry for Me Book Discussion

One Book, One Region
Friday, March 21, 12 PM - 1 PM
Registration Required | Meeting Room

Join us for a peer-led book discussion of the One Book, One Region 2025 selection, Don't Cry For Me by Daniel Black. In this wise and penetrating novel of empathy and forgiveness, a Black father makes amends with his gay son through letters written on his deathbed. Copies of the book are available to borrow at the Front Desk. A light lunch will be served.

A Living History Portrayal of Charlotte Bronte

Saturday, March 29, 12 PM - 1:30 PM
Drop-In | Community Room

Laura Rocklyn, an actress, writer, and first-person historical interpreter, will portray Charlotte Brontë. Light refreshments will be served. This free event, held in celebration of Women's History Month, is sponsored by the Elsie Brown Fund.
