Mental Health Mondays

Mondays, March 2, 9, 16, 23, 30
10:30 AM - 12:30 PM

Free | Adults
Drop-in | Literacy Volunteers Office

If you have concerns about your well-being and want to talk to someone, feel free to stop in to see Carol, a retired mental health professional who is here to lend an ear and direct you to resources, if needed. She will be available on Mondays, from 10:30 AM to 12:30 PM.

Please check our events calendar to confirm her availability or call us at (860) 889-2365

Homeschool Meet-up

Friday, March 13, 11 AM - 12 PM

Free | Ages 6-11
Drop-In | Children's Department

Meet up with homeschool families and see what Otis Library has to offer, including materials, meeting space, programs, and more. Children and teens will learn engineering concepts while designing and creating a hand-crank craft using paper rolls, straws, and decorative tape. Crafts available for younger children as well.

YA Writing Group

Fridays, March 6 & 20, 3 PM - 4:30 PM

Free | Ages 12-18
Drop-In | Young Adult Department

Interested in writing? Join our YA Writing Group to share ideas, swap writing snippets, get feedback, or simply use the space as motivation to build your writing habit. All experience levels welcome!

Film Screening: Up and Down the River

Wednesday, March 18, 5:30 PM - 6:45 PM
Free | Drop-In | Community Room

Up and Down the River is a short film that tells the story of the first Native soldier to die in the Revolutionary War and shares Mohegan perspectives on history, place, and community.

The screening will be followed by a conversation with writers Melissa Tantaquidgeon Zobel and Madeline Sayet, who also directed the film.

This free public program is presented by the America's 250th Norwich CT Committee in partnership with Otis Library.
